A festive poster for the Nutcracker 2025. At the top, the text "A Dancer's Reflection" is written in a cursive font, with "presents" in a smaller sans-serif font below it. The title "the Nutcracker" is prominently displayed in a large, stylized, red and green font. Below the title is a central illustration of the Nutcracker Prince, a large figure with a red crown, a red and white striped body, and a red and white striped skirt. He is flanked by two smaller figures: a male dancer in a green tunic and a female dancer in a green dress with a white cape. The background is white with several snowflake illustrations. At the bottom, a red banner with white text reads "• 2025 •".
